

Ca' Rezzonico Necklace

This is an over the top Necklace named after the famous Palazzo on the Grand Canal built in the Venetian Baroque Style.

LEVEL: Beginner to Intermediate

We used a wide assortment of beads, quite asymmetrical, and chain which we had on hand, some in Natural Bronze, some in Natural Brass. We use this from our Italian Chain because the links are soldered and your wire wraps won't fall out.

Tools:

Flat Nose Pliers Round Nose Pliers Side Cutters

Wire Wrapping: Need Help – See our Tutorial

Instructions:

Step 1. Make the wire loops on each of your beads 1st and set them aside using the Rose Gold Wire. .

Step 2 Select your chain and prepare the links.

Step 3. Take jump rings and link your already prepared beads to the links of chain.

Step 4. Join the inner strand to the large ring on the outer strand with the jump rings

Step 5. Join the strands to the clasp.

Hints:

If you can make your own jump rings, this will save money and your wire loops on the beads and jump rings will be the same color.

Color Variations:

You can replace these components with other color combinations. For a monotone look, use only Gold or Silver Foil Beads.

The components here and the colors are only suggestions and inspiration for you to try your hand.

Ca' Rezzonico Necklace

Use components you already have in your beading kit.

Alternatives: Use trigger clasp for the inside strand and you can wear it with only one strand for the office. Clip on the second strand for nights on the town.
