Design by VenetianBeadShop

This makes an approximately 22 Inch

You can make longer or shorter by just adding or shortening the suede cord.

This is super simple and if you can cut, do a little gluing and use pliers, you can make it.

Components:

This is super easy.

Step 1. Cut 2 pieces of the suede cord 22 inches long. The clasp and jump rings will add approximately 1 inch to the overall length. The loop on the pendant will take away approximately the same length.

Step 2. Be sure the ends are square cut and that the suede cord is exactly the same length.

Step 3. Place the 2 lengths of suede side by side, apply a little glue at the end to prepare for crimping the end cap.

Step 4. Insert into the cap and crimp securely

Step 5. Do the same for the other end.

Step 6. Apply a little glue to the crimped end caps for safety.

Step 7. Attach the swivel clasp to one end of the necklace with a jump ring. Twist a couple of times to strengthen the metal and be sure to close securely.

Step 8. Attach the jump ring to the other end repeating the opening and closing for strength.

Step 9. Find the center of the necklace and bend into a loop as shown below. Inserting from front to back helps hold the pendant close to the body.
